February 08, 2021

Dear President SPANO,

L'Association européenne pour la défense des droits et des libertés, ASSEDEL, is a non-profit human rights advocacy association. Our objective is to disseminate, promote and defend human rights and fundamental freedoms in the spirit of the European Convention on Human Rights, both within the Council of Europe system and at the local, national, and international levels.

We highly appreciate your official contacts with the CoE member states and believe that your recent visit to Turkey will advance the fundamental human rights and freedoms in that country.

In this context, we have received the information that you would invite relevant NGOs and associations to the ECHR campus in the coming period. As a Strasbourg-based human rights association, we will be honored to attend your invitation and to hear your address before you at the ECHR.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely

ASSEDEL
